autem, utramq; coniungendam prudentiorum omnium vnanimem esse opinionem, (ut et ipsi sentitis) autumo. Hac tamen lege, ut quaecunq; audita, siue lecta fuerint, memoriam, tanquam fidelissimo, et tutissimo ærario tradantur, ut hinc inde ad usum facilius deponi, et reduci queant.

Sed quoniam memoria cum utendi facultate debilis, et incompleta esse soleat, ita ut ad sese exerendam, et in actum producendam quibusdam egeat subsidijs; optimè eos quidem novitionum studijs consuluisse putem, qui quæ & memoriæ iuvandæ, & usus facilitati iustò promovendæ collatura existiment, literarum candidatis ad amissum proponant. Idcirco cum usus eorum quæ Coniugata Logicis dicuntur, memoriam in verbis retinendis ut plurimum juvet, et compositionis is finis sit, partim ut non, (quod aiunt) fusq; deq; , sed cum necessitas id cogit, oratio assurgat, partim ut mens nostra, ubi opus est, loco integræ orationis, verbi verbi beneficio utatur, ut non in uno, sed ut multa una complectamur, quo et interim oratio magis accrescit: Nos certè, et memoriæ, et usui hac ratione faventes, et aliarum linguarum lexica nequaquam absq; re, nonnihil imitantes, simplicibus composita, parenti sobolem subiecimus, quo et facilius quæ a probatissimis authoribus usurpantur, memoriæ commendentur, et certius, et expeditius siue in scribendi, seu loquendi exercitatione, conceptus nostri sese expedire, et dilatare queant.

Sin autem vides verba varijs præpositionibus aliquando composita, nulla a me interpretata fuisse differentia: scias quod ne latum vnguem ab authorum probatorum Coryphæis, puris ijs scilicet Romanorum fontibus discedendum mihi fuisse rectè censuerim: nec vllatenus ausus fuerim. Sed et atentius se consulat curiosus quisq;, et æqua lance verborum naturam libret, fatebiturq; una mecum eandem vini singulorum verborum compositionem non non sibi vindicare, quorundam quamvis; ut ingenij acumine præditis, et in linguâ Latinâ versatissimis perspicacissimum est.

Ne autem et priori sententiæ meæ allibi traditæ, et ipsi veritati fraudi essem, profiteor me cum de verbis Neutris agam, illiq; ordini quædam ascribam; non è sententiâ propriâ, sed cum vulgo loqui; verbiq; Neutrius ordinem supervacaneum esse, quod et allibi a me habetur, constantius asseverare; meq; illud Aristotelis libentius audire, qui cum Ethicorum primo, de idæis adversus Platonem, et Socratem sententiam dicturus tribunal ascendit, præclara illa dictavit. Veritatis causa melius videtur, immo oportet etiam quæ sua sunt tollere aut refutare. Vale Lector et fruiere.
